Carol Cleveland

Born in London, Carol Cleveland went to America when she was only five, and was educated in Texas and California. She returned to London to study at RADA, and her American accent landed her various roles in television, including parts in "The Avengers" and "The Saint". Recently, she completed a part in the Sammy Davis film, "Salt and Pepper", and now comes her first "baddy" role—that of a prostitute in "The Adding Machine", being filmed at Shepperton.

Remember your word to your servant, for you have given me hope. 49

My comfort in my suffering is this: Your promise preserves my life. 50

The arrogant mock me without restraint, but I do not turn from your law. 51

I remember your ancient laws, O LORD, and I find comfort in them. 52

Indignation grips me because of the wicked, who have forsaken your law. 53

Your decrees are the theme of my song wherever I lodge. 54

In the night I remember your name, O LORD, and I will keep your law. 55

This has been my practice: I obey your precepts. 56

You are my portion, O LORD; I have promised to obey your words. 57

I have sought your face with all my heart; be gracious to me according to your promise. 58

I have considered my ways and have turned my steps to your statutes. 59

I will hasten and not delay to obey your commands. 60

jml1218 asked:

Hello Mark, have a question with these 4 creature types and their differences: Illusions, Mutants, Shapeshifters and Elementals? I was under the impression illusions and mutants could take any form the same way shapeshifter could but im at an impasse.

Illusions are magic in the form of a creature.

Mutants are creatures who have been changed through some internal or external force.

Shapeshifters are magical creatures that can change their shape.

Elemental are creatures made out of an element or substance.

Only shapeshifters change their shape from one creature to another.

Get caught!

Life is full of fumbles and stumbles. Fraught with opportunities to make mistakes, occasions to feel guilty, and the drive to "do it yourself." The pressure to be self-sufficient is high, but it isn't the life God offers.

The way of the world will direct you to try harder and work smarter so that you can take care of yourself and even make yourself successful. But the way of the cross will point toward the place where you stop striving . . . stop pushing . . . stop every self-initiated effort--so that you can fall into the boundless, liberating, refreshing grace of God!

Just imagine being love-driven instead of self-propelled. Imagine abandoning your life to Jesus instead of trying to save yourself. Can you imagine exchanging your fears for that peace that passes understanding? Being relaxed and free instead of stressed-out and anxious? If you can imagine enjoying God instead of trying to repay him, then you can imagine grace.

So go ahead! Jump off the cliff of self-sufficiency. Leap out of legalism. Walk off the pier of guilt and condemnation. That's the only way you'll land in the strong arms of the Father who loves you . . . the Father who catches you--every time--in the grip of his grace.

Twenty years after it was first released, this message of hope and freedom is as relevant and life-changing as ever. And this beautiful 20th Anniversary Edition, which features colorful callouts and imagery, is the perfect addition to any personal library.

Protection from Red combined with Banding can be very effective

> Example: This time, Jules attacks Peter with a Crimson Hellkite (6/6, Flying). Peter blocks with Mesa Pegasus (1/1, Banding, Flying), Thermal Glider (2/1, Flying, Protection from Red), and Roc of Kher Ridges (3/3, Flying). Under normal circumstances, Jules would decide how the Hellkite's damage is divided. Since the Pegasus has Banding, Peter will decide. Obviously, his smartest play is to assign all the Hellkite's damage (it's a red creature) to the Thermal Glider, whose Protection from Red will allow it to survive, while the combined damage from the three creatures will kill the Hellkite.

The situation would seem to get a bit more complicated when both the attackers and blockers have Banding, but the damage sharing still is operative. The attacker decides how the blockers will deal their damage to his creatures, and the defender decides how the attackers will deal damage to hers.

sharing still is operative. The attacker decides how the blockers will deal their damage to his creatures, and the defender decides how the attackers will deal damage to hers.

> Example: Now, Jules attacks Peter with her Crimson Hellkite and Teremko Griffin (2/2, Banding, Flying) in a band. Peter blocks the Hellkite with his Mesa Pegasus, Roc of Kher Ridges, and Abyssal Horror (2/2, Flying). Jules assigns the Pegasus' 1 damage to the Griffin, and the Roc's 3 and Horror's 2 to the Hellkite. Peter assigns the Hellkite's 6 and Griffin's 2 to the Pegasus. When the damage resolves, the Pegasus is the only creature to die (unless Peter had played something to prevent all the damage to or regenerate it).

Bands with Other is special form of Banding, but otherwise basically follows all the same rules. An attacking creature with "bands with other [creature type]" can form an attacking band with other creatures that have the same "bands with other [creature type]" ability. Creatures with banding can also join this band, but creatures without banding can't. The creatures in this band don't have to have the creature type specified in Black Legend creatures you control gain bands with other Legend creatures.

Example: Jules has an Unholy Citadel in play. She attacks with her Crosis (6/6, Flying) and her Lord of Tresserhorn (10/4). She can form a band because they're both black (as well red and blue) and both Legends. Peter blocks the Crosis with his Yawgmoth Demon (6/6, Flying, First Strike). Normally, the Yawgmoth Demon would kill the Crosis, but Jules can use the damage sharing ability to assign 3 to the Lord of Tresshorn and 3 to the Crosis. Since both creatures live through the First Strike Combat Damage Step, they deal a total of 16 to the Yawgmoth Demon.

Banding has historically been difficult for players and judges alike to grasp, but is relatively simple once it's broken down. Section 502.10 of the Comprehensive Rules covers the ability in its entirety. If you're still having trouble, email me at juggernt@acsalaska.net, and I'll be happy to lend you a hand figuring it out.

"You're really good at crying, J. Geil. Well, you're about to fall down to Hell, sobbing the whole way down. But there's one thing I can't rely on the guardians of Hell to do for me. And that's...To turn you into a pincushion!!"

Oasis Mirage (mythic rare)
4GU
Legendary Enchantment
You may have lands you play enter the battlefield as a copy of any permanent on the battlefield.

Caring about lands that you play entering the battlefield rather than lands you control entering the battlefield is an unusual hair to split. Be very careful if you want to lean on that distinction.

Wow, what a crazy ability! This is terrific.

This looks broken to me. Once this resolves, all your ramp spells become the best thing in play. Explosive Vegetation, get you and your opponent's biggest, baddest creatures or planeswalker sounds way too strong to me. But the scariest thing about this is that lands are uncounterable and can't be responded to. There is no opportunity for counterplay once this resolves. This card is very difficult to play against.

This will function much like Spitting Image, except you don't get a clone up front and you can copy any permanent, not just creatures. I'd want to playtest with this to see how confusing it is to have lands that are copies of things rather than tokens that are copies of things.

This is a great mythic rare design. It's unique and it makes players try to figure out how to best use it.

Heart's Desire (mythic rare)
3GGUU
Enchantment
If you would search your library for a card or cards, search for twice as many cards that fit the search criteria instead.

Some cards like Cultivate that refer to a singular "the other" can easily enough be brushed off as affecting "the others," which is a power level issue rather than rules. Protean Hulk boggles in confusion, though—two sets with total converted mana cost 6, or one? I'd aim the text simpler to get straight to the point and only mention the bits you care about:

> While searching your library for one or more cards, you may search for up to twice that many cards.

I would reword this to search twice (since I am not confident "twice as many" always works), but it is a very interesting idea.

I like this card. It can lead to a lot of searching and shuffling (because you are building around it), which will slow down gameplay, but I think it is expensive enough where the amount of decks it will appear in is limited. I think this card looks fun.

This reads as pretty appealing for players (not me, mind you!) who enjoy Tutors, but I'd be shocked if it actually works with many search effects. What does this do with Long-Term Plans? What about Scion of the Ur-Dragon?

Doubling searches? I think I'm in love. My only criticism of this card is a self-criticism that I didn't think of it first.

Ral, Living Experiment (mythic rare)
4UR
Legendary Planeswalker — Ral
4
+2: Discard a card. If you do, draw two cards.
0: Instant and sorcery spells you cast cost 1 less to cast this turn.
-9: Take an extra turn after this one. During that turn, whenever you cast an instant or sorcery spell, copy it. You may choose new targets for the copy.

This is a very clear Ral design.

This is nice. All abilities are appealing, the entire package works, and it is in character for Ral.

A cost-reduction ability on a six-mana planeswalker seems out of place to me. The ultimate doesn't seem very splashy to me; generally we want our ultimates to help bring the game to a close, but this ability is only going to close out games under certain circumstances (when you're ahead on board and/or have a powerful spell to double).

This both seems like a flavorful capturing of Ral Zarek and fun card to play. I particularly like the ultimate in that it allows you to take many turns setting it up. My one change is I might make the second ability an emblem so that it could interact with the ultimate.

Pam, Shapeshifting Planeswalker (mythic rare)
2GU
Legendary Planeswalker — Pam
3
+1: You may choose a creature or non-Pam planeswalker on the battlefield. If you do, Pam becomes a copy of that creature or planeswalker and gains indestructible until end of turn. If Pam becomes a copy of a planeswalker, she may activate a loyalty ability once this turn as though none of her loyalty abilities have been activated this turn.
-2: Create a 3/3 green Ooze creature token.
-6: For each player, search his or her library for a creature or planeswalker card and put it onto the battlefield under your control. Then each player shuffles his or her library.

Be wary of giving planeswalkers indestructible—it won't save the planeswalker from damage-based removal, but if you say that a planeswalker gets it, it's easy to misconstrue that as your intent.

This is novel, but it takes so much text I don't know that it is fruitful.

I think this is a very cool +1. All of these abilities seem reasonable to me, as far as costs and numbers go. One concern I see here is the ultimate can be very time-consuming in a multiplayer game. Think about all the other players waiting around while you search each library. However, that is an easy fix, and overall I like this a lot.

I like the idea of a green-blue planeswalker that can shapeshift. The Ooze token is a nice simple thing that feels like it could fit thematically with a shapeshifting character. I really hate Bribery effects, but I guess as a planeswalker's ultimate it's okay, and if you have loyalty left over afterwards you can clone whatever the biggest thing is on your next turn. Just be careful of cards that punish players for casting good creatures (or planeswalkers) or even for including them in their deck.

I like each of your three activated abilities. Unfortunately, I don't understand what they have to do with one another. The key to good planeswalker design is to create something that allows the player to have an interesting set of interconnecting paths to explore, that by using the abilities in a certain order you can achieve some larger victory. Your paths don't really interconnect. On top of that your flavor doesn't bind them together either. Pam's a shapeshifter. That explains the +1 activation. Why is she making Oozes? Why is she able to summon other people's creatures and planeswalkers? It neither mechanically nor flavorfully hangs together. In short, I like your pieces, but they don't seem to be from the same jigsaw puzzle.

Sorin, The Prequel (mythic rare)
3WB
Legendary Planeswalker — Sorin
4
+2: Each opponent loses 1 life and you gain 1 life.
-3: Exile target nonland permanent an opponent controls until Sorin, The Prequel leaves the battlefield.
-10: Create a legendary 8/8 white Angel creature token named Avacyn, Angel of Hope with flying, vigilance, indestructible, and other permanents you control have indestructible.

This fits, but I don't like piling on "the whole game is removing this planeswalker."

There is some interesting tension here with exiling a creature and then having to protect this planeswalker or else they get their creature back. However I think as a package this planeswalker is very weak. It's pretty expensive at five, and when you plus it all you're getting is a drain. Since the plus is not worth doing, then you're putting this in your deck to use the minus, and this minus is not worth five mana. It looks like this card was made with multiplayer in mind, if it was I think it would be more interesting if the ability scaled with the number of players in the game (exile a creature for each player). As is, I believe this card is too weak to excite players.

This is nice and flavorful. The +2 ability plays into Sorin's primary identity as a Vampire. The -3 ability resembles the Helvault's ability, and Sorin's ultimate creates an Avacyn token. If we ever did some sort of flashback set about early Innistrad, a design like this might be appropriate.

My notes on this card are similar to my notes on your last planeswalker. I like the pieces, but they don't add up to a compelling whole. If Avacyn, for example was a / creature where her power and toughness was equal to your life total, then your life drain to get to the ultimate would have meant something. If anything, your middle ability decreases the chances you'll ever get to the ultimate, because once you lock something away, the ultimate essentially turns into -11 as you want Sorin to survive the ultimate. I do appreciate the flavor, and the tie to Sorin helps make this feel more cohesive than Pam, but there is still a bunch of tweaking I would want to see before we printed this.

Jori, Archaeologist (mythic rare)
1BG
Legendary Planeswalker — Jori
3
+2: Put the top 2 cards of your library into your graveyard. Gain 2 life.
-2: Return target permanent card from your graveyard to your hand.
-7: Until end of turn, you may play cards from your graveyard. If a card would be put into your graveyard from anywhere this turn, exile that card instead.

Keep in mind that Jori's last ability will stop "when something dies" triggers when nontoken permanents die, but not tokens. Do you want to risk players misplaying, or play it safe and just have "a card or token" exiled if it tries to go to your graveyard?

This is a straightforward, solid planeswalker design.

Three-mana planeswalkers are tricky to make because they are much harder to deal with than four-mana planeswalkers by a significant amount. This comes down before the opponent has a board presence. For this reason, we usually start off three-mana planeswalkers with low loyalty. You started yours at three and it immediately goes to five. While it does not do anything on the plus, the opponent will have to invest a lot of resources in killing this. That said, I think this design is very cool. It has some fun play patterns (mill yourself, fill your graveyard, cast all your stuff, get back permanents when you need to do that). I am usually going to be happy activating any of the abilities and the choices are interesting, whether I want to work up to the ultimate or minus to get a key card back. I think this planeswalker is great if we adjust the numbers.

A tight package where every ability works together in a cohesive way. The Yawgmoth's Will ultimate is saucy! As I said above, planeswalkers are hard, and this one is pretty compelling. This card doesn't have any way to protect itself with its abilities, so it might want to start with higher loyalty (and have a corresponding higher ultimate cost).

This is another cool design. It leans a bit more black, but there's enough green in the design to justify the two colors. I wonder whether the ultimate should just be an emblem rather than an "until end of turn" effect.

Saheeli, Prodigious Inventor (mythic rare)
2UR
Planeswalker — Saheeli
+1: If you control no thopters, create a 1/1 colorless thopter artifact creature token with flying. Otherwise, scry 2.
-2: Target thopter you control becomes a copy of target artifact or creature. It's still an artifact. (This effect doesn't end at end of turn.)
-8: You get an emblem with At the beginning of your end step, search your library for an artifact card with converted mana cost X or less, where X is two plus the highest converted mana cost among artifacts you control. Put it onto the battlefield, then shuffle your library.

I like the abilities, but I doubt they all fit. Also, I would not be surprised if the middle ability needs to be -X based on the converted mana cost of the copied permanent, so I would try and find a significantly shorter ultimate, one short enough to fit the converted mana cost text.

Four-mana walkers that create tokens on the +1 are risky in Constructed, and this is a nice way to mitigate that risk. The minus ability creates tracking issues as I must remember which Thopter is which creature, especially if this is activated multiple times.

This card presents significant user experience problems. Let's talk through my imagined scenario: I activate the +1 ability with an otherwise empty board. I get a Thopter, putting a cardboard token with "Thopter" printed on it onto the table. All good. My opponent doesn't want to cast their cool creature on their turn, because I will just clone it. I cast my own cool creature, then I activate Saheeli's -2 to clone it. However, the clone is represented by the cardboard token with "Thopter" written on it. Okay? On my next turn, I go to activate my +1 ability again. Wait, can I do this? Suddenly the fact that my -2 ability over-writes my Thopter token's creature type is very relevant, but not at all obvious from how the game state is physically represented. This seems unnecessarily confusing to me. Similarly, the ultimate ability shines a spotlight on the fact that copies of things have the same converted mana cost as the original, but again, my token won't have that information on it. All these criticisms aside, I like that all the abilities relate to each other in a way that makes the card feel cohesive. It feels like Saheeli to me, making artifact copies of things.

Planeswalkers are hard to design, partially because they have a lot of technical restrictions and partially because matching the flavor of the Planeswalker is difficult. I think you did a good job here. Now to nitpick. I like that the first ability restricts how many Thopters you have at one time, but I feel you got a little cheaty sneaking two effects onto one ability. The final ability interacts with the second ability, making you want to use them together, but the fact that they're both negative loyalty abilities means this will almost never actually happen.

Keeper, Underworld Warden (mythic rare)
2WB
Planeswalker — Keeper
1: Exile up to one target creature card from a graveyard.
-1: Target player reveals their hand. You choose a nonland card from it. Exile that card.
-2: Exile target permanent.
When CARDNAME leaves the battlefield, at the beginning of the next end step, return each card exiled with her to its owner's hand.

Often planeswalkers create a problem in that removing them is so critical that their presence on the battlefield leaves no interesting decisions. Your design however allows the player to hedge and exile creatures from their own graveyard, making the opponent think twice about destroying it. This design is a winner.

Having a dies trigger on a planeswalker is interesting, and this design gives both you and the opponent a good amount of tension, which will lead to fun gameplay.

None of this card's abilities interact with each other; even the -1 ability exiles the card from hand so you can't exile it from the graveyard later with the +1 ability. The rate on this card seems very strong to me; it can exile two permanents or four cards from hand for only four mana. The +1 ability is irrelevant under most circumstances, and probably won't be activated unless the opponent has already been completely stripped of resources. There is little for me to like about this design.

This is the first planeswalker design I've ever seen with a death trigger. I like how each of the abilities connects to the death trigger. I also like that it's a planeswalker where its controller will occasionally choose to kill it on purpose. I'll disagree with Ethan and say, all in all, this card is a nice little package of a design.

Get caught!

Life is full of fumbles and stumbles. Fraught with opportunities to make mistakes, occasions to feel guilty, and the drive to "do it yourself." The pressure to be self-sufficient is high, but it isn't the life God offers.

The way of the world will direct you to try harder and work smarter so that you can take care of yourself and even make yourself successful. But the way of the cross will point toward the place where you stop striving . . . stop pushing . . . stop every self-initiated effort--so that you can fall into the boundless, liberating, refreshing grace of God!

Just imagine being love-driven instead of self-propelled. Imagine abandoning your life to Jesus instead of trying to save yourself. Can you imagine exchanging your fears for that peace that passes understanding? Being relaxed and free instead of stressed-out and anxious? If you can imagine enjoying God instead of trying to repay him, then you can imagine grace.

So go ahead! Jump off the cliff of self-sufficiency. Leap out of legalism. Walk off the pier of guilt and condemnation. That's the only way you'll land in the strong arms of the Father who loves you . . . the Father who catches you--every time--in the grip of his grace.

Twenty years after it was first released, this message of hope and freedom is as relevant and life-changing as ever. And this beautiful 20th Anniversary Edition, which features colorful callouts and imagery, is the perfect addition to any personal library.

apparently nobody knows math. when the first creature enters the battlefield that is one mana, when the second creature enters the battlefield that is two more mana for a total of three. when the third creature enters the battlefield that is three more mana for a total of six.
3=6
4=10
this is called a geometric series. completly different than polynomial function like x^2. the actual formula is (n+1)*n/2 where n is the total number of creatures that entered the battlefield that shared a creature type assuming there were none to begin with. To figure out how many you get if there are already creatures on the battlefield that share creature types with it as it enters the battlefield, then you use the same formula with n being the final number of creatures sharing a creature type then subtract the number from the formula with n being the starting number of creatures sharing the same creature type.

(((f+1)*f)-((s+1)*s))

with f being final and s being initial creatures that share the same creature type.

Our First Love

We didn't always love God, of course. To begin with, we hated him. The Bible describes us as enemies (Romans 5:10), strangers (Ephesians 2:12), rebels (Ezekiel 20:38), and haters (Romans 1:30); impure (Ephesians 5:5), disobedient (Ephesians 2:2), hopeless (Ephesians 2:12), and ignorant (Romans 10:3). Our sins justly placed us under his wrath and displeasure (Ephesians 2:3). We rejected God, despised his authority, and ignored his good law. We were neither lovely nor loving.

But he loved us. In the counsels of eternity, he set his love on us, and in time, he sent his beloved Son to die for us so that we might enter into a loving relationship with him. He brought us out of slavery into the joyful circle of his family and made us his privileged children.

children.

Because he loved us, we now love him. Our love for God is comprehensive: involving heart, soul, mind, and strength (Mark 12:30). It controls us (2 Corinthians 5:14), and it compels us (John 14:15). Our days and hours and minutes are taken up with this love. Like the psalmist, we look around us and proclaim that there is nothing in all the earth we desire apart from God (Psalm 73:25). He is our first love, and he is our great love.

God's Great Love

It's appropriate, then, that we would ask ourselves, What does God love? For anyone who has ever sat in the creaking pews — or folding chairs — of a local congregation on Sunday morning, the answer might be surprising: God loves the church.

one another's holiness, to show affection for one another, to bear one another's needs, to encourage one another's gifts, and to join in the cause of the gospel together. The people of our church are often outwardly unremarkable, but in the mutual love of the local church, we affirm the love that God has for us.

Thankfully, we don't have to muster up love for the church on our own strength. Before he went to the cross to redeem his people, Christ prayed for the church. He petitioned the Father "that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them" (John 17:26). Surrounded by the ordinary and yet extraordinary, sinful and yet holy, weak and yet ultimately triumphant people of God, we look for the Father's gracious answer to the Son's request. And when the God who is love (1 John 4:8) dwells in us by his Spirit, we have everything we need to love the church.

and soundness of speech that cannot be condemned, so that those who oppose you may be ashamed because they have nothing bad to say about us. 8

Teach slaves to be subject to their masters in everything, to try to please them, not to talk back to them, 9 and not to steal from them, but to show that they can be fully trusted, so that in every way they will make the teaching about God our Savior attractive. 10

For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all men. 11

It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self–controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age, 12

while we wait for the blessed hope––the glorious appearing of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, 13 who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good. 14

These, then, are the things you should teach. Encourage and rebuke with all authority. Do not let anyone despise you. 15

YOU ARE VERY MUCH ON TIME

Someone graduated at the age of 22, but waited 5 years before securing a good job.

Someone became a CEO at 25, and died at 50.

While another became a CEO at 50, and lived to 90 years.

Someone is still single, while someone else got married.

Obama retired at 55, but Trump started at 70.

Everyone in this world works based on their time zone.

People around you might seem to go ahead of you, while some might seem to be behind you.

But everyone is running their own RACE, in their own TIME.

Do not envy them.

They are in their time zone, and you are in yours.

So, RELAX.

You're not LATE.

You're not EARLY.

things to come. Note that I'm only giving you partial information.

First up, here are some things you can expect:

• A white creature that can make an opponent lose the game simply by attacking them no matter how much life they have

• A multicolor creature that lets you repeatedly reanimate permanents out of your opponent's graveyard for no mana

• Three creatures with five creature types

• An artifact granting +2/+2 to a subset of creatures that first appeared in Alpha

• X being used for a variable it's never been used for before

• a 6/6 artifact creature that costs 3 and a 7/5 artifact creature that can cost 3

• The return of four mana symbols that have each only ever been used on two cards before

• Lands that come with a choice you've never had before

• Targeted enchantment removal in black

• A red/white creature with a line of rules text that starts with "Whenever" and ends with "draw a card"

• A card with three different activated abilities that all copy something

Here are snippets of rules text, you'll see:

1. Recognize the germ.

Much fiction starts with a memory—a person, a problem, tension, fear, conflict that resonates with you and grows in your mind.

That's the germ of an idea that can become your story.

2. Write it down.

Write your first draft to simply get the basics of the story down without worrying about grammar, cliches, redundancy or anything but the plot.

3. Create characters from people you know.

Characters come from people you've or have known all your life (relatives).

Brainstorming interesting, quirky, inspiring, influential people and mix and match their looks, ages, genders, traits, voices, tics, habits, characteristics. The resulting character will be an amalgam of those.

4. Get writing.

The outlining and research has to end at some point.

Violet's Indian-Style Body Tickle Torture - Custom (FULL HD version)

Sexy, exotic Violet looks amazing in a traditional Indian outfit with a beautiful Sari for this hot body tickling custom! Violet only wears the Sari for special occasions but she wore it for us and it looks incredible on her as she is cuffed to the mule, standing for some intense tickling. Violet's armpits are her worst spot and she hates them being tickled...which is unfortunate for her this time as they get some intense tickling, along with her exposed belly and sides! Violet is soon gasping for breath as she laughs hysterically, even begging for a break at times. Her top is unbuttoned exposing her boobs and more of her torso which gets some very mean tickling in the final minutes. Poor Violet found this one very intense and we cut the scene a little shorter than planned - but decided her feet would have to get some tickling too (coming up!) 1080p Full HD resolution (1920x1080 pixels) 10 mins 27 seconds

Zara Really Hates Being Tickled In The Stocks! (FULL HD version)

Sexy blonde Zara Lei is super-sensitive and she really hates being tickled! It's unlucky for her as she finds herself in the stocks for a very mean tickle session! Zara's hot body looks amazing in a tight top, miniskirt, sheer pantyhose and heels as she starts out with her wrists cuffed above her. Her shoes come off and Zara's soon squirming as her nylon feet are tickled. She laughs and protests as her sexy feet get thoroughly tickled before moving on to her legs and upperbody, where totally she loses it! Zara really can't stand the tickling at all and she squeals and struggles frantically to get away, twisting herself into some crazy positions when her armpits and sides are tickled! Her top is pulled down to expose her massive boobs, which bounce around as she thrashes and struggles. Zara squirms around so much, we release her arms for the final minutes, focusing entirely on her feet. The pantyhose are ripped to expose her sexy bare soles and Zara really doesn't like what's in store! Her bare feet get intensely tickled, adding baby lotion and the toe-ties along with the hairbrush, which drives her really nuts. She squeals and writhes in the chair until it's finally over...and she's glad when it is! Zara does not like being tickled one bit but she does like getting her own back, and it turns out she's a great tickler too - watch out for her revenge, coming up soon! 1080p Full HD resolution (1920x1080 pixels) 11 mins 44 seconds

Cherry Can't Escape - Custom (FULL HD version)

Super-ticklish Cherry is hotter than ever as she gets very tightly strapped down for some serious tickle-torture! This custom clip features a little role-play as Cherry boasts that she can get out of even the tightest bondage...and even claims that she's not all that ticklish! It's a big mistake as she is then put through her paces in order to try and prove her point, with inevitable results as Cherry is tickled out of her mind! You get a bend-the-scenes view in this one as Cherry is strapped down and cuffed to the bench wearing a tight little crop top with a miniskirt and sheer pantyhose. She has her legs bound together to start with and her toes are tied as the tickling begins. Cherry can barely move in this position and she's soon squealing and shrieking with laughter as her nylon feet are tickled, followed by her super-ticklish thighs! Things only get worse for Cherry though as her legs are and then spread apart and strapped down again, leaving her even more vulnerable to the tickles. It gets much more intense in this position as first feet, then legs and finally the upperbody are tickled. She's already going crazy by the time the belly and armpit tickling begins and it's clear that she definitely can't handle it - and neither can she escape! Cherry is soon going crazy and a ballgag is added to muffle her screams as the upperbody tickling continues. Her top is pulled up to expose her amazing boobs and it also leaves her belly and ribs exposed to some more brutal tickling. It gets worse when the chest strap is removed, exposing Cherry's whole torso and she screams and squeals through the gag as her body is mercilessly tickled for several minutes, almost turning the table over as she struggles! Finally the gag comes out, but the tickling doesn't end there. Poor Cherry begs for it to stop as she is taunted and tickled until the end, finally admitting that may have been wrong all along! 1080p Full HD resolution (1920x1080 pixels) 17 mins 11 seconds *N.b. Tickle-Torture For Ayla's Hyper-Sensitive Nipples - Custom (FULL HD version)

Tiny asian Ayla Sky gets one of her most intense tickles scenes ever in this wild boob tickling custom! Ayla has the most unbearably sensitive nipples we've ever seen and this one was genuinely very tough for her to shoot but she agreed to it! Fully nude, Ayla is bound upright for some breast tickle-torture. Her sensitive boobs and nipples are tickled with fingers and feathers as she laughs, squirms, screams and pleads. Even the lightest tickles are very intense for her, and she giggles and gasps when the feather brushes across her breasts. The nipple tickling is off the scale though and she really struggles to hold it together. It's a crazy and very intense scene with great views from two angles...poor Ayla really suffers this time! 1080p Full HD resolution (1920x1080 pixels) 14 mins 00 seconds

Maro's Kaldheim Teaser

Before the Kaldheim full previews officially begin, I thought I'd have some fun with another Maro teaser where I give you tiny hints of things to come. As always, be aware that I'm only giving you partial information.

First up, here are some things you can expect to see in Kaldheim:

• a five-color legendary enchantment

• 2{B} for a 6/6 with deathtouch

• a card that allows you to kill someone with poison

• A card with a {W}{W}{U}{U}{B}{B}{R}{R}{G}{G},{T} activation

• a card that lets you use a creature's toughness to perform an action normally using a creature's power

• numerous new noncreature tokens

• a card that can make a token that's a copy of target permanent for no mana

• a black creature that can copy other creatures

• the introduction of a creature type that players have been wanting for years

• a card with three activation costs, one that's only ever used once before and the other two have never been used before

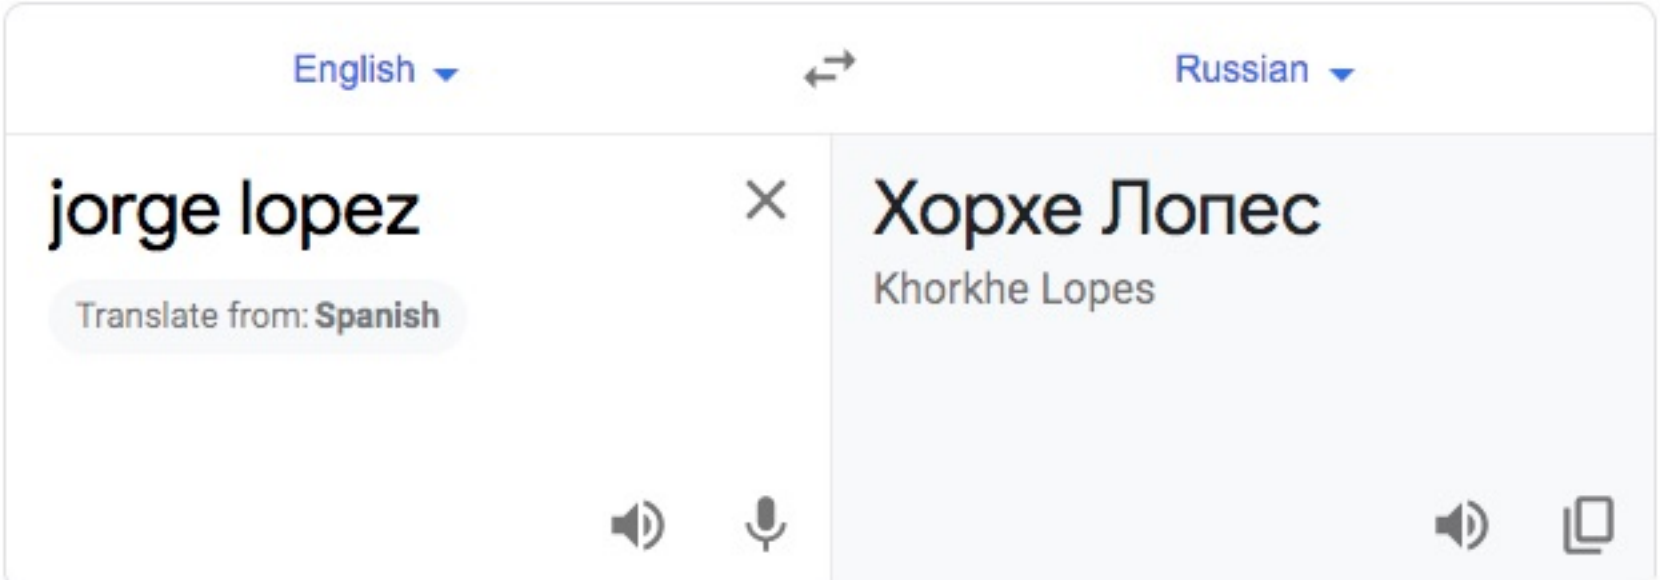

Here are some snippets of rules text you'll see:

- "protection from God creatures"
- "Sacrifice five Treasures:"
- "if three or more creatures died this turn"
- "Choose 1, 2, or 3 at random."
- "except for Giants, Wizards, and lands"

In The Marvel DC crossover, Wolverine alongside Gambit, stole Batman's Batmobile. Amusingly enough, when the Marvel and DC Universes were merged together to make the Amalgam Universe, Wolverine was merged with Batman to form Dark Claw.

Can Survive Nuclear Blasts

The strongest version of Wolverine must be Old Man Phoenix Wolverine which happened when Dr. Doom had attacked the earth in a near immortal form.

He has the normal powers of well Wolverine but he also has the Phoenix force behind him.
Powers include-

- Nigh Omnipotence: The Phoenix Force is practically omnipotent, but is limited in undetermined and undefined ways as seems to suit its current mission/purpose.
- Future Life-Force Tap: The Phoenix Force can tap into the energy provided by life-force reserved for future generations, thus denying them existence.
- Concussive Force Blasts: It can wield this energy to project beams of immense concussive force powerful enough to destroy whole planetary bodies.
- Energy Absorption: It can directly absorb, manipulate, and fully control any type of energy such as Cyclops' ruby-red-colored optic blasts or the entire energy of a star, black hole, or even a whole galaxy.
- Matter Transmutation: It can manipulate and transmute matter on a sub-atomic level (e.g., turning wood to gold, stone to crystal, cause physical bodies to disintegrate by altering their molecular structure, etc).
- Cosmic Teleportation: It can teleport others across vast distances such as another planet or galaxy, and the vast vacuum of space itself or even an entire timeline all-together.
- Resurrection Force: It can resurrect anyone it wishes with its near infinite powers, as it is the embodiment of life and death itself. It could also bring itself back as well as its host.
- Immortality: Force is immortal and indestructible. It can't die or be destroyed. After its "death" in Avengers vs. X-Men, it was said to be destroyed, but, as it has happened many times, the entity never truly died.
- Atmokinesis: The Phoenix Force is capable of manipulating and creating cosmic weather . It can create cosmic storms, solar flares, geomagnetic storms, cosmic rays , coronal mass ejection and black holes.

He is easily the most powerful version of Wolverine there is, he woudl have killed Thor if the Phoenix Force hadn't stopped him.

The message is focus on your craft because the only thing that matters at the end of the day is your output. The problem arises when people feel slighted by there peers success/recognition when the only thing you should focus on is how to be the best version of yourself.

The World Forger recently brought Batman to the greatest seat of power in existence, where Batman built the most powerful Bat-Suit of all. It contains Element X and can see peoples hearts, read minds, and not only change peoples minds but rewrite them cell by cell. And this future Batsuit is the only reason The new Justice League thinks the way they do, because Batman used it on them.

Wolverine

One of the more gruesome ways the Hulk has been taken down has to be by the hand of Wolverine, arguably one of the most popular mutants of all the X-Men characters. In an alternate reality, a dystopian future sees the Hulk driven to evil. He sends his minions to destroy the small family Logan created in the desolate wastelands.

In anger, Logan challenged the Hulk one-on-one and was eaten. Being the resourceful type, however, Wolverine regenerated inside of the Hulk's stomach and clawed his way out, taking the Hulk out once and for all.

Silver Surfer

The Silver Surfer has got to be one of the most powerful beings the Hulk has ever lost to. Imbued with the Power Cosmic thanks to Galactus, the Silver Surfer has more power than can ever be accounted for. During the Tales to Astonish #93 storyline, the Hulk becomes enraged with the Surfer when the galactic hero is unable to take the Hulk away from Earth to be left alone.

The Hulk attacks, but is easily knocked unconscious by the Power Cosmic unleashed by the Surfer. Had the Hulk waited, he would have gotten his wish sooner or later.

Superman

Probably the most powerful hero to ever defeat the Hulk, it's none other than Superman himself. The DC Comics hero is undoubtedly one of the strongest superheroes of all time, and in 1996, Marvel and DC Comics decided to see once and for all who would win in a fight between these two titans.

In Marvel Comics vs. DC, the heroes from each universe are pitted against each other to see which universe survives and which gets erased. Superman is able to unleash his full power and not hold back like he usually does, making him victorious.

Which Superhero is the G. O. A. T (Greatest of all time)? Vote down below who you pick!

METAL FOR THE MASSES.

Drum MIDI inspired by the last two decades of metal.

In today's fragmented world of metal, the lines between genres have blurred to a point where often several styles seamlessly meld into one. Any random track can feature anything from a regular four-on-the-floor or a subtle fusion- and jazz-inspired groove to the most relentless d-beats, blasts and grind variations, without the average listener even blinking twice. In this MIDI pack, drummer powerhouse Ash Pearson (Revocation, 3 Inches of Blood) dives headfirst into not only his own impressive discography but also the past two decades of metal music, bands and personal inspirations, to unravel the art of metal drums in the new millennium.

FEATURE SPOTLIGHT

- Drum grooves and fills primarily inspired by metal of the past two decades
- Suitable for anything from heavy metal to technical death, thrash and progressive metal
- Performed by Ash Pearson (Revocation, Zimmers Hole, 3 Inches of Blood)
- More than 400 individually played files

jml1218 asked:

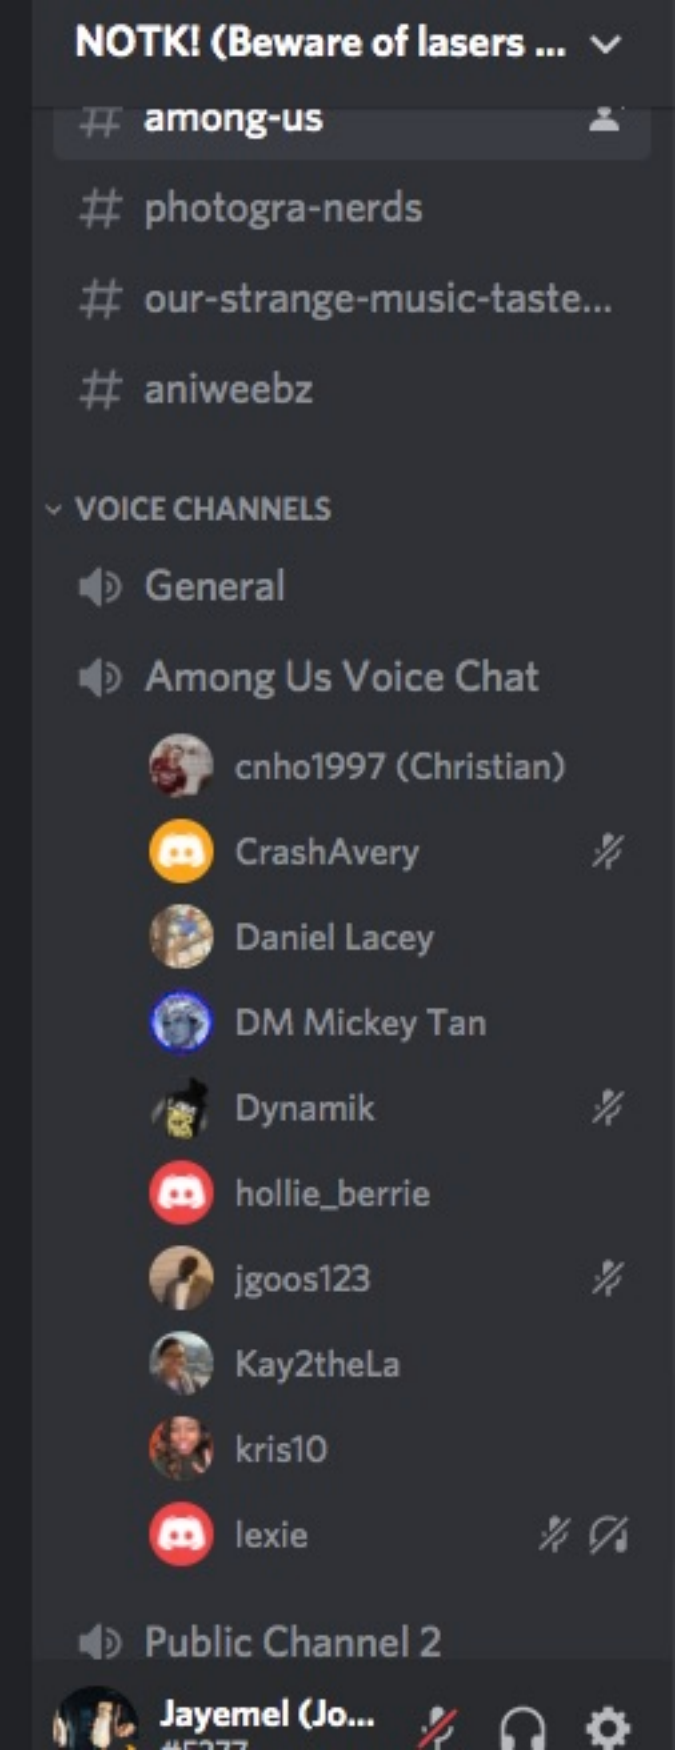

Hello Mark, been a minute since i messaged you but today is my birthday!! Can i get trivia on Ashiok design origins? Thanks!!

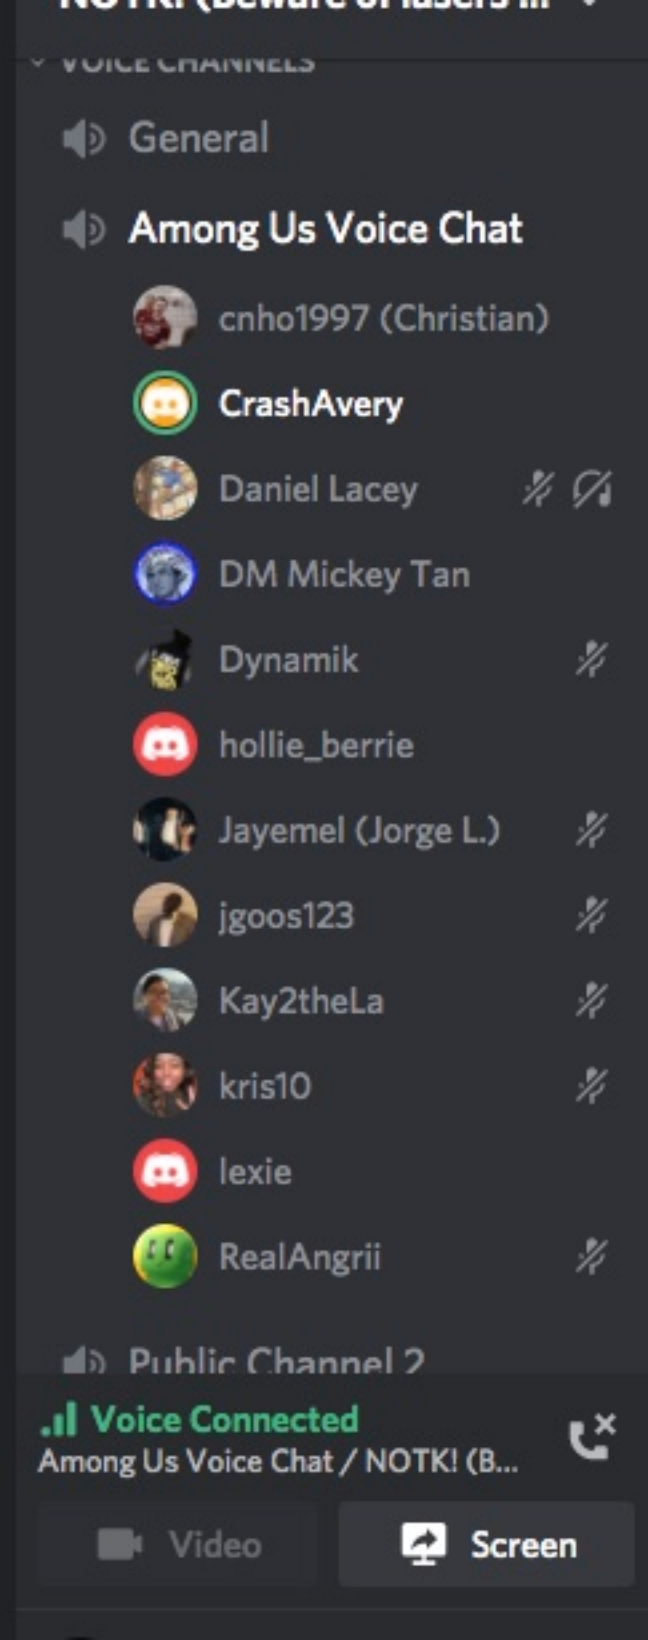

In earlier versions of the story, Ashiok was going to launch a war by attacking Theros with their own dreams, but that went away as we started building the pantheon of Gods and decided to have Heliod play a larger role.

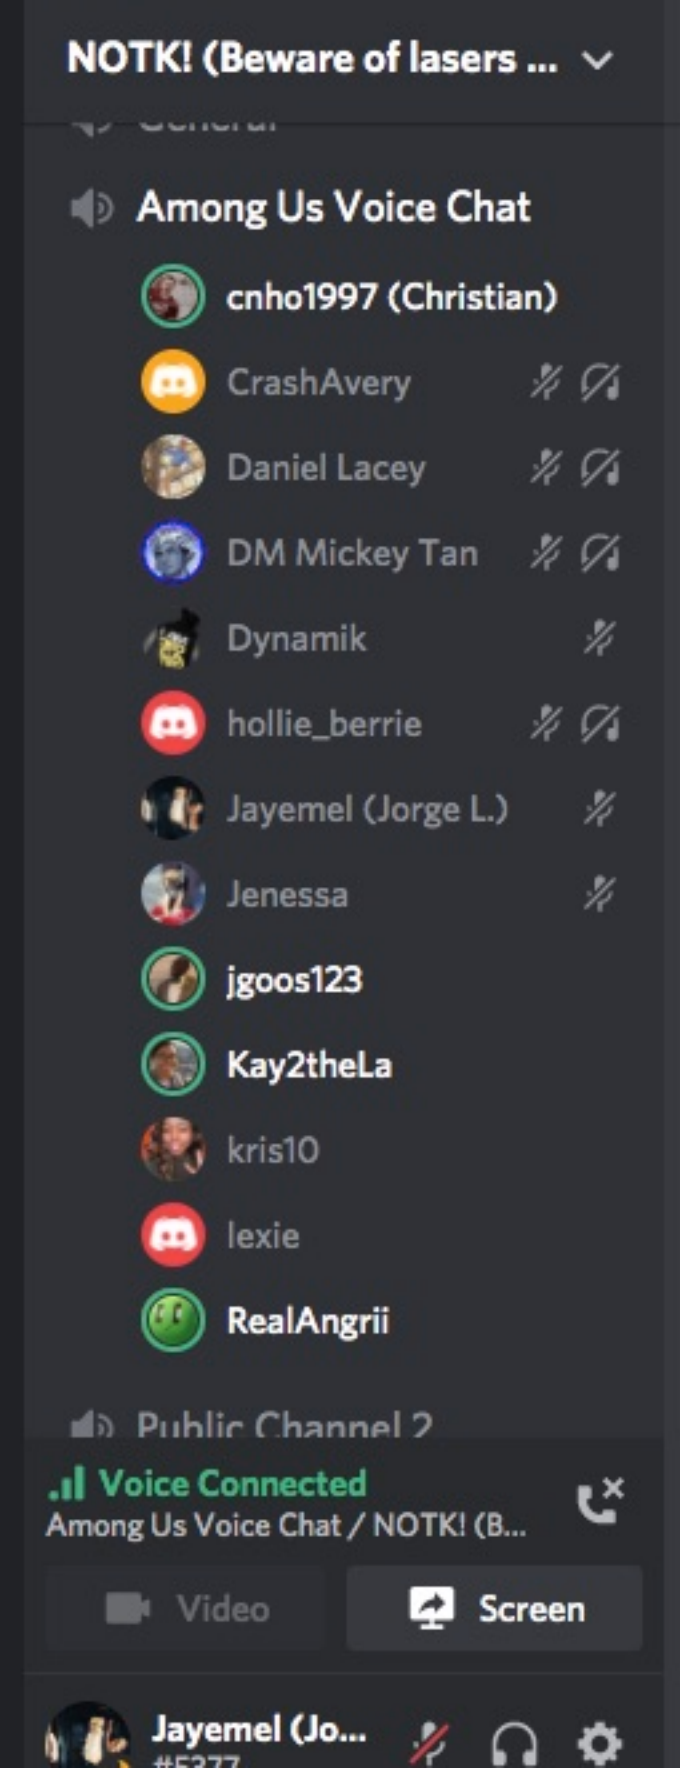

Happy Birthday!

Daniela, 27 years old, come from Naples (the town of the actress Sophia Loren), so her is deeply italian, and her skin exquisitely ticklish. In fact she feel the most delicate touch of a feather. My partner and me play with her the nice game of the: "Spy interrogation". In the full movie you'll see, beside the usual tickling, the thriller of the preparation, and how we address to her, and all the dialogueS have SUBTITLE IN ENGLISH LANGUAGE. Then, to satisfy the tastes of everybody, I have subdivide the video in separate parts: just on the table, just on the bed, and, without the introduction of the interrogatory, just feet, bottom-legs, upper-body tickling actions. Total running time of the full movie: 23 min 35 sec.

Jonah 4:4

But the LORD replied, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

In Context | Full Chapter | Other Translations

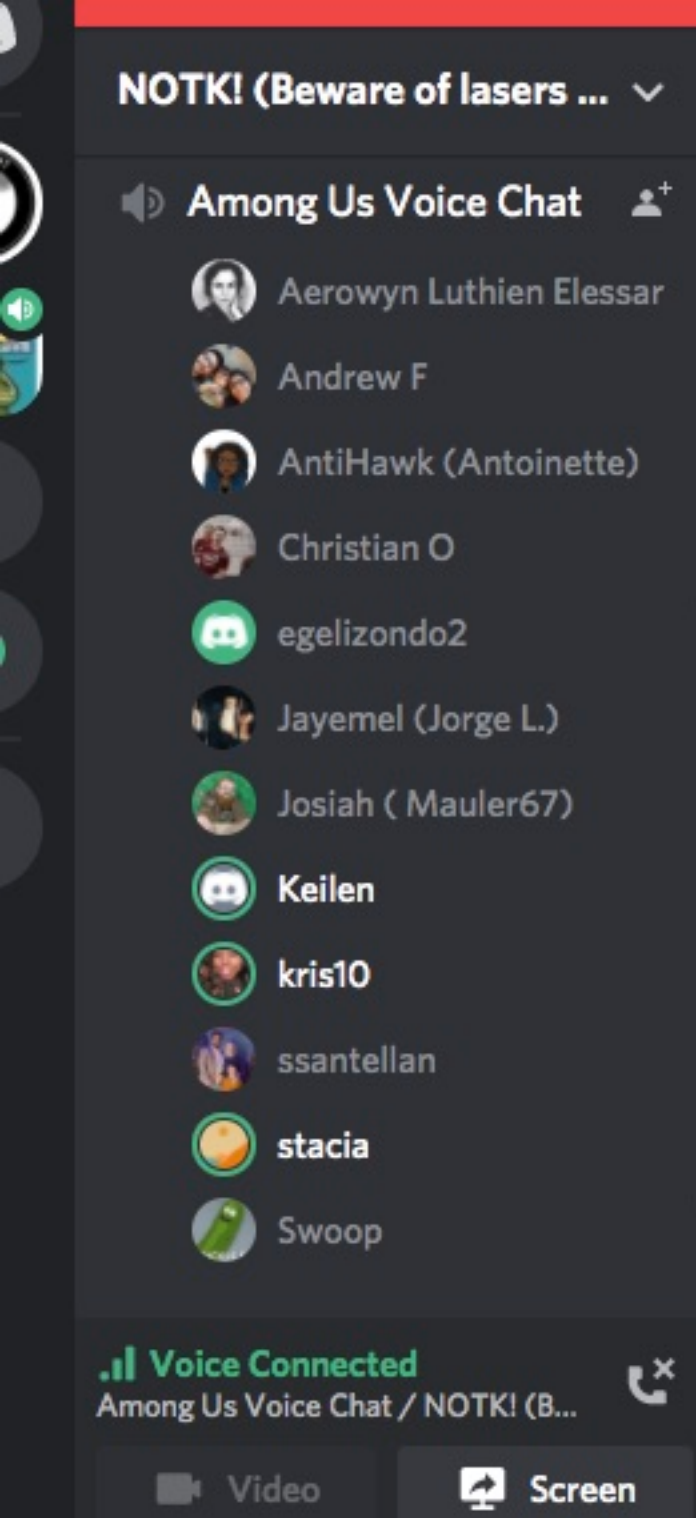

Jonah 4:9

But God said to Jonah, "Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?" "It is," he said. "And I'm so angry I wish I were dead."

26 Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts. Even their women exchanged natural sexual relations for unnatural ones. 27 In the same way the men also abandoned natural relations with women and were inflamed with lust for one another. Men committed shameful acts with other men, and received in themselves the due penalty for their error.

28 Furthermore, just as they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, so God gave them over to a depraved mind,
so that they do what ought not to be done.
29 They have become filled with every kind of wickedness, evil, greed and depravity.
They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips, 30 slanderers,
God-haters, insolent, arrogant and boastful;
they invent ways of doing evil; they disobey their parents; 31 they have no understanding, no fidelity, no love, no mercy. 32 Although they know God's righteous decree that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do these very things but also approve of those who practice them.

IT'S NOT A MIRAGE

THERE'S NO WAY WE COULD SEE ONE HERE

AREN'T HUMAN SOULS THE MAIN SOURCE OF FOOD FOR HOLLOWS ?

I CONFIRMED IT IN THE LAST FIGHT

IF I GET THE HANG OF IT, I SHOULD BE ABLE TO UTILIZE MY POWERS MUCH BETTER HERE THAN IN THE HUMAN WORLD OR SOUL SOCIETY

BECAUSE THE QUINCY ARE A CLAN THAT FIGHT BY USING THE SPIRIT PARTICLES AROUND THEM

WE DO BETTER WHEN THE CONCEN-TRATION IS HIGH

I'm new here and I've seen people talk about different scales, what do they mean?

I have certain scales that gauge how likely a certain thing is to return to a premier set (the ones that go into Standard). 1 means very likely. 10 means very unlikely. Each scale is named after a 10 from that scale.

The Storm Scale is for mechanics.

The Venser Scale is for planeswalkers.

The Beeble Scale is for creature types.

The Rabiah Scale is for planes.

Mahikarinoikami Brillant Question

1)I found out from the UNMASKED character book that halibel's attack that sliced Tōshirō is actually a spray of very high pressure water.
2)I failed to include it in my video but Uryu explicitly declared that hollows (and anyone with spiritual powers for that matter) would actually appear many times stronger in Hueco Mundo because of its reishi density in comparison to the human world. (Chapter 245) Since the top 3 fought in the world of the living This explains why their attacks were less destructive. So if Ulquiorra does a Lanza del Rempago in the living world it may not be as destructive as we've seen it in hueco mundo

Jesus said: "Well, I know where I come from and where I am going" (John 8:14). He knew perfectly who He was and the direction He was going. Nothing and no one could divert Him from His destiny, which was dictated by the Father and accepted by Him.

When we are in the midst of problems it is important to know where we want to go. It is common for problems to develop and bring confusion into our lives. During the storms of life, the instruments and indicators that normally help us navigate become confusing and we may lose our clarity and course. MAGIC THE GATHERING

Obeka, Brute Chronologist

Obeka will punch you into next week—literally. An ogre mage who breaks the flow of time through brute force, Obeka isn't concerned with piddling details like causality. A right cross from her will knock the baby teeth right into your mouth, and her uppercut is so powerful, your mother will feel it twenty years ago.

Obeka wants nothing more than to live an enjoyable life full of earthly pleasures and knock-down, drag-out fights. Good and bad are of little interest to her, as her only concern is if something sounds fun. She lives exclusively in the moment, and if that moment goes south, she'll beat it out of existence. If you get in her way, consider your wish that you were never born granted.

MAGIC THE GATHERING

Sakashima of a Thousand Faces

Orphaned as a baby, Kenshi Sakashima's prospects seemed . . . uninspiring. He could take up a trade, find a wife, have a few children, and die, leaving behind a modest inheritance. Sakashima wanted more than his life could offer him. He wanted more than any one life could offer him. He became a master of masks, of makeup, of wigs. He disguised himself as any number of people and infiltrated all strata of Kamigawan society, both to enrich himself and to satisfy his curiosity. He studied under the master illusionist Chinsen, learning to make his mind a blank scroll, to become to role he played. He infiltrated ogres' strongholds, kitsunes' forests, and even the floating city of the soratami. It was all too easy for Sakashima. Only one challenge remained: to infiltrate the kakuriyo, the realm of the kami.

Esther

"And where would you be if he hadn't interrupted your life — if Jesus hadn't invaded your comfortable rebellion and beckoned you to repent and believe?

Once God turns our lives upside down, he doesn't stop using interruptions (large or small) for our good. Through them, he chastens our pride, slows our pace, opens our eyes, bends us toward dependence, and teaches us to trust. He reminds us that he is not after our maximum efficiency, but instead our maximum conformity to Christ, who was never too busy, too preoccupied, or too impatient to be interrupted."

Loved this, many points for reflection, and practical application – happy Saturday, family!

Questions

How has your desire for walking with God daily and the mission been in the last few months?

What sin (s) are hindering you right now? What is entangling you and making it impossible to run the race well and know Him intimately?

How would your life look like if you came under discipline of Jesus?
